We drove our stock to the Porcupine Hills
In the summer of Eighty-Six.

We were greener than willows in early spring,
And we got in the hell of a fix.

John McFarish 1900

For the Christmas blizzard, that famous year,

When the range was wide open and free,

Drove cattle south through our outfit
Clean down from Calgary.

John McFarish 1890

We rounded up what was left of the bunch,
(Learning the country's ways)

And settled behind a bend in the Swift,

And there was the happy days.

John McFarish 1890 23

Buffalo chips for a fire,

Map-jacks and beef-jacks.

Our coffee was not too thick to stir,

And we drank our whiskey neat.

John McFarish 1898 57

There's only a few of the best of us left,

(Alive, and out of jail)

John McFarish 1898 57

Who knew the open range as it was
Are the days of wire and rail.

A. R. Burton 1896 711 L R

We don't go gunning for horse thieves,

The ditchies are all dressed up.

They eat store bread and sheep meat,

Instead of roasted pup.

John McFarish Burns 1896

And its shuck time now at the Palliser

For us boys from near and far

Who are rounded up for this bow-wow

By the good old C.P.R.

John McFarish Calgary 1896

So loosen your belts and eat hearty.

Drink a toast to the Old North West.

"Long life to the hearts still beating"

And peace to the hearts at rest."

Representatives of Chuckwagons from every range in the old Northwest Territories will camp on the Palliser Flats at the junction of the Bow and Elbow Rivers.

Tuesday, July 12th, 1949

Grub will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Buck Greeniaus of the CPR Outfit will Be Captain of the Round-up.

All Reps Assemble at the Water Hole, near The Chuckwagon

At 6:00 p.m. To see the irrigatin system installed for the occasion. Be there!

The CPR Outfit covers a lot of range. You old boys have worked over lots of it, and we are sure glad to have you camp at our wagon tonight. We told the cook to make it good. All ranch bosses have told cooks many things. Sometimes they do it. Tonight let's live over the "old days," they were good ones. The results of the hard work of the old time range men are to be seen all over the Northwestern Canadian range country. Their efforts through the long years have done much to produce the present prosperity. Old time range men we salute you! We are glad you are here, and hope you are.

Mr. Harry B. Wilson,
104 - 1st Street, W.,
CALGARY, Alberta.

Dear Sir:

I have pleasure in enclosing a copy of the Menu for the Old Time Range Men's Dinner which was held on July 12th last, which shows the autographs of those who attended.

I thought you might like to have a memento of this very pleasant occasion, and, incidentally, regret that last year the original copy of the Menu was lost, therefore I was unable to have it reproduced.

Yours very truly,

CALGARY BREWING & MALTING CO., LTD.
